Oakes’ Senior Personnel. 2019-2020
Biographical Information.

Linda Wohlrabe, MSW Interim Executive Director
Linda Wohlrabe is currently Oakes’ Interim Executive Director and, having served as Oakes’ Interim ED in 2005, is familiar with Oakes’ programs. She will facilitate assessments of Oakes’ programs and systems, provide support and supervision for the leadership staff, support Capital Improvements, and perform the day to day responsibilities of the Executive Director pending the hiring of a full time Executive Director. Linda received her MSW at San Francisco State University in 1981 and has worked at The Pomeroy Center, The Regional Center System, and, for the last 25 years, as Consulting and Interim Executive Director at several agencies, including Burt Children’s Center, Mission Hospice, La Casa de las Madres, and Ohlhoff Recovery Services.

Angie Branham, Ph.D. – Clinical Director, Clinical Training Director
Dr. Angie Branham, Ph.D. and Licensed Clinical Psychologist, is a passionate scholar-practitioner in the field of Clinical Psychology who continues to participate in clinical practice, training, supervision, and writing. She has clinical experience with multiple populations in both rural and urban settings. She is an advocate for delivering psychodynamic therapies and other evidence-based treatments to populations that have traditionally not had access to this type of treatment and works to teach and implement ways of using these methods to her staff and trainees. Dr. Branham has a range of clinical interests such as gamers, eating disorders, trauma, and issues around power and privilege, and uses dream work, play therapy, and sand tray therapy with clients. She is an active learner who hopes to instill the importance of play and imagination in her trainees. She continues to work on her own growth as a practitioner and candidate at the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco.

Holly Oswald, Psy.D. – Director of Outpatient Services
Dr. Holly Oswald serves as the Director of Outpatient Services at Oakes. She earned her Doctorate in Clinical Psychology at the Chicago School of Professional Psychology and completed an internship and fellowship at Children's Hospital in Oakland. Throughout her training, Dr. Oswald specialized in serving children and families who have experienced trauma or abuse, who manage serious medical conditions, or are experiencing mental health crises. Prior to joining the Oakes team, Dr. Oswald provided direct services, clinical supervision, program leadership and development, and consultation services to agencies within Child Welfare, Foster Care Mental Health, San Francisco Unified School District, and the Department of Public Health.

Stacy Elliott, MA, LMFT –Coordinator of School-Based Partnership Program and Clinical Supervisor
Stacy has a MA in Counseling Psychology from the California Institute of Integral Studies (CIIS) and is a LMFT (Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist). She began working with children and teens in 2007. She has supported children and adolescents with mental health services for the last six years at Oakes and, for the last three years, Stacy has been overseeing Oakes’ Partnership Program and school-based services, supporting Therapists working now in 20 SFUSD schools. Since joining the management team, Stacy has continued the development of Oakes’ school-based services for Educationally Related Mental Health Services (ERMHS), which are mental health services provided to public-school students, and for students and families on Medi-Cal.
